U.S. Indices React to Trump's Cabinet Picks: Who Will Be the Treasury Secretary?

U.S. indices closed yesterday with an average gain of %0.5. After profit-taking from record highs last week, risk appetite is back, and markets are rising. The key focus on Wall Street is the announcement of the new Treasury Secretary, expected soon. This decision could bring volatility and new market opportunities.

Gold Recovers Last Week's Losses with a %5 Rally

Gold has surged %5 this week, recovering from last week's sharp declines. The demand for gold increased due to geopolitical tensions, particularly the Ukraine-Russia missile crisis. Gold has risen for five consecutive days and is now targeting the 2.700$ level. Further gains are possible.

Bitcoin Targets 100.000$

Bitcoin continues its strong rally, fueled by Trump's election win. In November, it gained %40, offering significant returns to investors. Global economic conditions and falling interest rates support Bitcoin's rise. Today, Bitcoin could test the 100.000$ level making long positions attractive.
